

Statement by NIHR on International Women's Day

Manama on March 8, 2020

On March 8 each year, the world celebrates the International Women's Day to highlight the achievements of women in all areas aimed at equality between men and women. This year's theme is "I am Generation Equality: Realising Women's Rights".

On the occasion of International Women's Day, the National Institution for Human Rights (NIHR) points out the high and prestigious position of Bahraini women in all sectors, and their awareness and culture as a partner in construction and development.

On this occasion, the NIHR appreciates the supportive efforts of the Supreme Council for Women in everything related to gender equality in the economic, social, cultural, civil and political fields, and the adoption of "Women in the Field of Diplomatic Work" for the year 2020.

On this occasion, the NIHR states that it will continue to promote and policy of gender equality in cooperation with all relevant authorities by following-up on the extent of commitment to international conventions and treaties ratified by the Kingdom of Bahrain concerned with women's issues.
